- Learn to put on your shoes.
- Practice washing your hands while singing the ABC song or Happy Birthday 2x.
- Consider visiting a fair and looking at all of the animals. Can you name them all?
- Color, paint, rip paper, and glue.
- Enjoy messy play - fingerpaint, mudcakes, puddle stomping.
- Explore nature in a park or your own yard or help an adult with gardening.
- Pretend, and make up stories.

Summer Enrichment BINGO Instructions

Print this page and follow the directions at the bottom of the BINGO Card. Write in the boxes any activities from the list on the previous page. If you undertake a specific activity more than once, you may write it on the card twice, but you cannot write any specific activity more than twice. The card must be completely filled-in with nine activities undertaken between June 11th and September 8th. Then, bring this page to school on the first day and receive a reward.

Preschool Optional Summer Reading

Below is a list of prolific children's authors whose books typically delight young children. Of course, feel free to read books of your own choice. Many early childhood reading organizations recommend that adults read to young children for twenty minutes a day. We hope that you and your child will joyfully engage in the pleasure of reading each and every day of the summer! Happy Reading!

Suggested Authors:

Lois Ehlert
Eric Carle
